

Bio:

Blair Lischeron,
Executive Director,
Project Literacy Kelowna.

Blair Lischeron comes to Project Literacy Kelowna following 5 years as the coordinator for a child development initiative in the South Okanagan-Similkameen called Communities for Kids / Success By 6. In that position Blair worked closely with community social service and health care providers, government agencies, and community organizations such as the United Way and Credit Unions, to support community-based early childhood development.

Blair graduated from the University of Victoria with an Honours Undergraduate degree in Psychology and a Masters degree in Public Administration. Blair has a variety of work experience in British Columbia's public sector, including: the Ministry of Education, Ministry of Advanced Education, Ministry of Children and Family Development, Ministry of Finance, the Cities of Victoria and Port Alberni, and at New Brunswick's Ministry of Training and Employment Development.

Blair is excited to assume responsibility for Project Literacy Kelowna. He gratefully acknowledges the tremendous work done by our former Executive Director Barb Hagan, and wishes Barb all the best in her future endeavors.
